Relay interview .....

At the center, I was able to collect necessary information for business establishment all in one place, and even have them receive necessary documents at some booths. It was helpful.

After working at a financial institution, I decided to become independent and open a salad bowl shop at the age of 30. I wanted to minimize complicated procedures for business establishment while preparing for the opening of the store. That was when the Small and Medium Enterprise Support Center told me about the center. Also, I was able to consult a lawyer about personnel management for employment free of charge at the Tokyo Employment Consultation Center on the same floor. It was helpful.

* There is a business consultation service center for foreign enterprises and foreign entrepreneurs called Business Development Center Tokyo, on the same floor and in Marunouchi KITTE.

I am also considering future overseas expansion

The first store opened successfully and now I am thinking about multiple-store development. I am also considering overseas expansion in the future to further disseminate the very best of Japanese food to the world . At the same time, I hope that more and more people will establish a business and contribute to promoting Japan.

President and Representative Director, TK Brothers Japan, Inc.
Mr. Tomohiro Takefumi

Profile: Born in 1983. From Okayama Prefecture. Worked for a securities company after graduating from university. Resigned from the company at the age of 30, as scheduled. He then started to prepare to open a business, and established a company at the age of 32.

My tip for You

I thought that working for a company would be good preparation for future business establishment and thus entered a securities company. I decided to leave the company at the age of 30 to go into business for myself. Mr. Son's words, "Decide which mountain to climb first" inspired me. I decided to determine what kind of business I would start during the first year after leaving the company. To those who are going to consider establishing a business from now, I would like to say that it is also important to set a time limit.

Now we are accepting applications for September 30th and October Information Session in Japanese. Anyone can use this service free of charge.

Date: September 30 (Fri), October 18 (Tue), October 24 (Mon), October 26 (Wed), October 28 (Fri), October 31 (Mon)
